

CURRICULUM VITAE

ESTEFANÍA PRISCILA PALACIOS TAMAYO

PhD student, Research Assistant
Department of Geography, University of Georgia
Athens, GA. 30602
estefania.palacios25@uga.edu

EDUCATION

PhD student (currently)-Department of Geography. University of Georgia, USA

M.A 2016-Department of Architecture, University of Cuenca, Master Degree in Land-use Planning. Topic: “The Commonwealth as a strategy for Land-use Planning with Biocultural Heritage relevance: Case study Commonwealth Collay”

B.A 2014-Department of Philosophy, Career History and Geography
University of Cuenca. Topic: “History of the Bilingual Intercultural Indigenous Education in the provinces of Azuay and Cañar- Ecuador”

EMPLOYMENT

2017- Research assistant in Geography Department, University of Georgia (EE. UU)
2018

2014- Teacher of Department of Philosophy, History and Geography,
2016 University of Cuenca.

2015- Geographic Coordinator in the Project Prospecting and Mitigation at Tundayme
2016 University of San Francisco de Quito

2015- Project Director: "Cultural Landscape of El Pan: Perspectives Heritage"
2016 in agreement with the University of Cuenca and GAD El Pan

2015. Director of the Project: Reconstruction of Historical Origin of the rural community
Tarqui

2013. Geographic and Ethno Coordinator Component of the project "Inventory of Intangible Heritage in Patate, Píllaro and Baños" conducted by the National Institute of Cultural Heritage.

STUDENT GRANTS

2017. Research assistant in Geography Department, University of Georgia (EE. UU)

2016. Scholarship holder by The European Union and ITCILO. Course A90907:
“Promoting rural development: sustainable tourism and short agricultural supply chains” Turin, Italy.

STUDENT AWARDS

2014. “Benigno Malo” Prize, University of Cuenca, Best Graduated Award

PUBLICATIONS

Palacios, E. 2018. “Historia de la Educación Indígena Intercultural Bilingüe en Azuay y Cañar (Ecuador)”, Claves de la Historia de Cuenca. Universidad de Cuenca. Cuenca-Ecuador.